Do you enjoy the sound of your alarm clock? Surprisingly, some new alarm clocks don't need to use sounds at all. The way they target your other senses can be a lot more pleasant.

For instance, the Wake-Up Light tries to wake you up naturally. At the time you set it for, a dim light will turn on. This light will gradually get brighter over the next thirty minutes. It's like waking up to a sunrise. ShakeAwake uses your sense of touch. Instead of making a sound, this thin alarm clock will shake your pillow. It's great if you want to let your partner sleep later than you. Finally, there's Sensorwake. At the Google Science Fair, judges named it one of the best new inventions. With this device you will wake up to the smell of coffee, the sea, or the forest.

Deaf people are already using alarm clocks like these. For those of you who are sick of hearing loud beeps, know that you have other choices.

44. What is the main topic(主題) of the passage?

- (A) Why people sleep in.
- (B) Creative new alarm clocks.
- (C) How to wake up.
- (D) Different sounds of alarm clocks.

45. Why can ShakeAwake let your partner sleep longer?

- (A) Because it only shakes your pillow.
- (B) Because the beep is not very loud.
- (C) Because it gives off a very dim light.
- (D) Because it gives off the exciting smell of food.
